MARION COUNTY LAWMAKERS RECEIVE INTERIM STUDY COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

INDIANAPOLIS – Lawmakers representing Marion County have received a series of assignments to serve on study committees in the interim between sessions of the Indiana General Assembly.

"These committees serve as the starting point for studying the issues that form the backbone of a legislative session," said Indiana House Democrat Leader B. Patrick Bauer from South Bend. "I am pleased we will be able to use the diverse expertise provided by our Marion County delegation to enact sound public policy for the people of this state."

Here are the assignments for Marion County House Democrats:

State Rep. Jeb Bardon will serve on the Statehouse Museum Commission.

State Rep. William Crawford will be a member of the Select Joint Committee on Medicaid Oversight, the Sentencing Policy Study Committee, the Commission on State Tax and Financing Policy, and the Committee on Child Care.

State Rep. John Day will serve on the Alzheimer's Disease and Related Senile Dementia Task Force.

State Rep. Mae Dickinson will be a member of the Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA) Evaluation Committee.

State Rep. Ed Mahern will serve on the Census Data Advisory Committee, the County Redistricting Commission, the White River State Park Development Commission, and the Marion County Consolidation Study Commission.

State Rep. Carolene Mays will be a member of the Health Finance Commission, the Commission on Minority and Women's Business Enterprises and the Regulatory Flexibility Committee.

State Rep. David Orentlicher will join Rep. Dickinson on the FSSA Evaluation Committee, and serve on the Health Finance Commission and the Regulatory Flexibility Committee.

State Rep. Greg Porter will serve on the Education Roundtable.

State Rep. Vanessa Summers will be a member of the Indiana Commission on Autism, the Child Custody and Support Advisory Committee, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Commission and the Select Committee on the Reorganization of Child Services.
